

17th National Annual 2009 SENIOR POETS LAUREATE POETRY COMPETITION

A contest open to all American poets age 50 and older who are U.S. Citizens regardless of where they live or are temporarily staying throughout the world. The 2009 SPL contest is sponsored by Amy Kitchener's Angels Without Wings Foundation (a non-profit Literary Society founded by Wanda Sue Parrott on July 31, 2001), administered by Yvonne Nunn, Dean, Cyber-College of Online Poetry, and judged by the Bardlets of the Cyber-College of Online Poetry and other members of the Meeting The Muse section of the sponsor's foundation. One National Senior Poet Laureate Award winner will be selected from qualifying laureate-title winners at state/regional level; these laureate-level poems shall be selected from Honor Scroll nominees chosen by judges in preliminary rounds. At the judges' discretion, a state or region may be represented by one Honor Scroll winner and one Senior Poet Laureate winner, or by either one or the other, with a limit of 2 possible awards given per state/region. Entries will be accepted between January 1, 2009 and June 30, 2009. You must have written and own the copyright to each poem you enter.
